Handwritten text in a script, likely Telugu, spanning multiple lines across the length of the palm leaf. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines, with some lines being more densely written than others. The script is cursive and characteristic of traditional South Indian manuscripts. The leaf shows signs of age, including discoloration and a small dark spot near the center.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern European handwriting. The document appears to be a formal record or a legal instrument, given the structured nature of the entries and the use of some capital letters and punctuation marks. The text is written in a dark ink, and the paper shows signs of wear, including a small dark stain near the center.
